Hon. James Bruce

Dear Jim:

Many thanks for your letter about [redacted] I have the background of this case and shall look into it carefully. He certainly seems to have real interest for us. One problem might be, however, that he is so well known [redacted] that it might be difficult to send him there. Of course there may be other available slots.

It was good to hear from you. Love to Ellen.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

He would like to take a post abroad for between one and two years. He has a wonderful personality, and is very able and intelligent, and has all the qualifications that are necessary for the work.
